EST LODUS IN REBUS.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1887.

THE Alta California in its monthly review of imports of specie at San Francisco for June, reports the sum of $42,359 as having been received from the Hawaiian Islands. On inquiry at the Custom-House, we find that no such amount of coin has been reported there, as shipped from this port during May or June. Nor has it been sent through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s

Express. Whose gold was it!

The re-appointment of His Excellency John O. Dominis to the office of Governor of Oahu, will be learned with pleasure, not only by his many friends here and abroad, but by all friends of good government in Hawaii. With the exception of the past four months, he has filled the office over twenty years, and under four Kings; and so long as the organic law of the Kingdom calls for the services of a governor for Oahu, we trust he may retain the position he now holds.

Some have suggested that it will be wise to publish without delay, the names of those gentlemen who may be considered best fitted to serve as nobles or representatives for this isl and, before the various wards or districts make their selections. Oahn is entitled to sixteen seats in the next Legislature-nine nobles and seven representatives; and on the judicious selection of the nominations to be The Board appointed to be Inspectors of Elec- made in the city and country, will tion for the Second Precinct, viz:-R A Lyman, rest the very important issue of preserving harmony among the constituency which comprises native Hawaiians, Portuguese and the cosmopolitan foreign element of this city and isl and.

> By an advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that the Government intend to act upon the legislation of steads. Apologists of the recent series of Gibson administrations have persistently held that the Homestead Act was so defective as to be inoperative. All the time it seemed strange that public lands could not be obtained for the honest purposes of the Act while land grabbers in high station or favor could at any time have the desire of their covetous eyes. Anyhow, those who disparaged the Act in question never showed clearly wherein its fatal defects lay. Now that the present Ministry has decided to make use of the provisions of the law, there is every probability of its merits being effectually tested. It would not be surprising if results proved that the Act was decried to order by the tools of the former regime, as its objects were incompatible with the projects of the land thieves. Probably, in any case, the defects of the measure were not so material that they could independent producers settle in the

His Excellency C. W. Ashford, Attorney-General, has issued a circular addressed to the Marshal of the Kingdom, the Sheriffs of the different Islands, and other members of the police force. This circular of instrucforming the basis of a clear under standing between the Attorney General and the whole police service. The principles set forth in the document are such as every right-thinking man will wish to see dominating the management of the whole civil service of this Government. THE Reform Party in Honolulu has been successful solely from one cause, and that is, that it has dealt and is dealing with measures and not with men. As long as we were supporting or opposing men we were divided, but the moment we ceased to care about this or that set of men and be gan to regard one separate and distinct principle, we became united as one man, and the whole fabric of cor ruption and fraud, which had been built upon the unstable foundation of our own dissentions, melted away as

THE FRIEND for July, which has several excellent articles on current topics, social and political, publishes the following letter from Mr. Wm. Martin, late Hawaiian Consul at Havre, France, to His Ex. W. L. Green, accompanying it with the remark that "it appears in France a complete and general acceptance has been accorded to the theory presented many years ago by the Hon. W. L. Green of Honolulu, in his book entitled 'Vestiges of the Molten Globe, as to the cause of the peculiar and somewhat regular arrangement and forms of the great continental and ocean masses of the Earth's surface, a theory more specifically known as that of the 'Tetrahedal Collapse' of the Earth's crust upon its shrinking interior:"

"Paris, June 2d, 1887. Hox. W. L. Green, Honolulu, S. I.,

Dear Sir: I am requested by the Paris Geographical Society to transmit to you the enclosed circular. Our Society has a very fine and numerous collection of portraits of almost all the Scientific men in the world, and we would be very happy to have yours. Your name is often on the lips and in the books of all the French geologists; for, as I am happy to say, your theory of the forma-tion of the globe has now been adopted and is currently taught by the great majority of professors of geology in this country, as agreeing better with the facts than Elie de Beau-What has become of the book you mentioned about two yeas ago as being ready for the press? Many scientific men often ask very sincerely and respectfully.

WILLIAM MARTIN." The manuscript copy of the book referred to by Mr. Martin is, we learn, completed, and will soon be put through the press. The subject which it discusses has been made a special study by the author, for more than thirty years, and it is gratifying to learn that the conclusions he has arrived at, are now adopted by leading scientists of Europe as the most correct and satisfactory of any yet published. As Hawaiians, we take great pride in the fact that Mr. Green's theories regarding the formation of this globe, and those of Rev. S. E. Bishop on the sun glows, which followed the great submarine eruption of Krakatoa in 1883, that are acknowledged throughout the world to be the not have been remedied at the late true solutions of the great problems session, had the Ministry only pos which have baffled so many learned sessed the desire to see a class of men, are the result of investigations made by our own countrymen

> In this connection we may allude to the visit of Prof. James D. Dana, the eminent editor of Silliman's Journal and Geologist of Yale College, New Haven, who arrived in the Australia, and visits these islands in the interest of science. He was connected with the Wilkes Exploring Expedition, which arrived here in 1840, but has not revisited the islands till now. The opportunities which were furnished by his connection with the Exploring Expedition, were improved greatly to the advantage of science, as his re ports on corals and coraline islands. and on the volcanoes of this and other Pacific groups, were published by the government, and have been accepted by the leading geologists of the past forty years. Probably no Geologist has studied more closely the phenomena of our two great volcanoes. Mauna Loa and Kilauea, than he, and he hopes to be able, by personal investigation, to more accurately determine some new questions relative to them, which have been raised by recent travelers. Besides the investigations and surveys of Capt. Dutton, who visited these islands in 1882-3, and made a full report to the United States Government Messrs. Emerson, Dodge, of the Government Survey. Dodge, of the Communent Survey, and Professor, Van Slyke, of Punahou College, have each made recent refully, (Signed) Hayar F. Poon, College, have each made recent reports accompanied with maps and diagrams, which have been published in Silliman's Journal. Some recent travelers who have visited Kilanea, have however, asserted with great confidence that the action of this crater will soon cease, which theory does not appear likely to be confirmed and Prof. Dana, who saw it in 1849, will now have a better opportunity to judge of its correctness, after an absence of following facts: forty-seven years, than any person living.

Prof. Dana left last weak for Mani and intends to take the Kirau this week and proceed on to Haweii and Kilauea via Keauhou. He will taun companied by Pres Merrita Camahou College, Mr. J. S. Emerson Survey Service, and Rev. S. E. Bishop. The party will remain at the center one week, which will enable them to gather full information on all points of interest. It is, we believe, the to tention of Prof. Dana, to embody the facts gathered by him on this visit, in a book on volcanoes which he is preparing, to be published soon after his return to New Haven, and which will unquestionably be the most complete work on the subject in existence.

Our next news from San Francisco will gone with lung trouble to be saved even by this balmy climate. The wards in the table are the new ones for electoral purposes.

"SOLID VOTE" our watch word. This or that man may think he could have nominated a better Ministry. It may be true; but we are not regarding the Ministry personally—we must an august 23.

The conduct of the Samoan Mission has indeed been a disgrace upon the nation. The only redeeming trait which comes forth out of the mass o ill-considered, badly-managed, de bauched mess is the conduct of Mr. H. F. Poor. He has evidently behaved electing in the matter. > These two acts, the Samoan Mission and the Kaimiloa, may be regarded as the most foolish and uselessly expensive of any of the acts of the Gibson administration. The utter foolishness of them has been amply demonstrated, for even the argument of the P. C. A. that Mr. Poor's work did some good to the Samoans, does not hold water. Why should the taxpayers of Hawaii be mulcted in something like $2,000 a month to prevent the Samoans from cutting one another's throats. Really if they wish to do so we see no reases why they should not. It is sad, it is deplorable, but the Germans and the French had been on the point of doing the same thing during the Gibson administration, and it would hardly have been necessary for Hawaii to interfere. The whole affair was an egregious swindle. Money was wasted in Samoa, money was wasted here, and neat little commissions were made by many of the subordinates.

Respectfully yours, Haupt Agentur der Deutschen Handels-& Plantagen-Gesellschaft der Sudsee-Inseln zu Hamburg. (Signed,) E. WEBER, T. BECKMANN, Hawaman Legation, Matautu, May 7, 1887.

To the Haupt-Agentur der Deutschen Han-dels & Plantsgen Gesellschaft der Sud-see-Inseln zu Hamburg. see-Inseln zu Hamburg.
GENTLEMEN:—I am again directed by His Excellency J. E. Bush to reply to a note of the 6th instant from your firm, signed by Messrs. E. Weber and T. Beckmann, again addressed to Mr. Bush personally, and to inform you that as soon as your survey has been verified by a surveyor Mr. Bush has employed, the fence and buildings will be removed.

I take the liberty to express surprise at the disrespectful tenor of your note, which is entirely uncalled for. Such methods and style of correspondence is unusual amongst gentlemen, and can serve no purpose. Neither Mr. Bush nor myself desire any controversy or ill-will with your firm, or with anyone per-sonally, and, while desiring to observe the usual forms of courtesy in our relations with you, we fail to divine the cause of your ap-

APIA, May 8th, 1887. J. E. Bush, Esq., Matantu, In reply to the letter dated May 7th, which you directed Mr. H. F. Poor to write in answer to ours of the 6th inst., we beg to make the following remarks:

If we avoided all superfluous phrases of civility in our last note, we had our good reasons for doing so—and these reasons, we think, ought to be known to you. But since you say you fail to divine the cause, we are compelled to remind you of the On the evening of the 4th of May, you have On the evening of the 4th of may, you have the open dinner-table of the International collaboration and our country; the German Nation and our country; have further, as we know from reliable ation, grossly insulted the firm which and our country is the term of the firm which is the firm of the firm of the firm which is the firm of the firm which is the firm of the

This behaviour on your part was uncalled for -not the style of our last The whole occurrence is of such a nature that we wonder if, should we make up our mind to let it pass into publicity, your conduct and the language you used on that occasion, would be called gentlemanly in the civilized world. This is the only reply we have to make to your censorious remarks as to what "is usual amongst gentlemen." We beg further to say that, after you have in such a manner set aside the usual laws of civility, it seems rather strange that you should complain of "disrespect." We have at least the same right to exact respect as you have; if you forget this, you must bear the
